

General Information

Cattaraugus-Allegany BOCES is required to provide certain consumer information and/or other reports to students, the Department and others.

Disclosure requirements include:

- Basic financial aid information
- General information about the school
- Student Right-To-Know Act
- Information on completion/graduation rates for general student body
- Drug and alcohol abuse prevention information
- Cleary (Campus Security) Act
- Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)
- Availability of employees for information dissemination

A school must annually provide a NOTICE directly (one-on-one distribution) to all enrolled students describing the availability of the consumer information listed above. The notice must contain a brief description of the various disclosures and how to obtain the full disclosures. If a disclosure is posted to a website, the notice must provide the exact electronic address and provide a statement that paper copies are available.
